Servion Realty and Pemberton Homes Team announce Partnership with City & County Credit Union to Better Serve Members with Homebuying and Selling Needs.

Minneapolis, MN 12/1/2024— Servion Realty and Pemberton Homes Team are excited to announce a strategic partnership with City & County Credit Union to provide their members with exclusive real estate services, making the homebuying and selling process smoother and more accessible. This partnership will offer City & County Credit Union members a seamless and comprehensive experience from pre-qualification to closing, while helping them navigate the complexities of the real estate market.

Empowering Credit Union Members with Expert Guidance

The collaboration between Servion Realty, Pemberton Homes, and City & County Credit Union brings together a team of real estate professionals with years of experience in helping clients make informed decisions. Through this partnership, members will gain access to expert advice on the home buying and selling process, mortgage support, and personalized service every step of the way.

“We are thrilled to offer our City & County Credit Union members the opportunity to work with trusted professionals from Servion Realty and Pemberton Homes Team. This partnership aligns perfectly with our mission to provide members with the resources and tools to achieve their homeownership goals,” said TJ Trembley, Director of Mortgage Services at City & County Credit Union.

Exclusive Member Benefits

City & County Credit Union members will enjoy a range of benefits, including:

- Dedicated Real Estate Agents: Expert agents from Servion Realty and Pemberton Homes Team will provide personalized guidance tailored to each member’s unique needs.
- Mortgage Expertise: Credit union members can receive mortgage advice and pre-qualification services from City & County’s trusted lending team to ensure they secure the best financing options available.
- Access to Exclusive Listings: Members will have early access to property listings through the Pemberton Homes Team and Servion Realty, increasing their chances of finding the perfect home.

- Free Educational Workshops: Ongoing workshops on homebuying and selling, led by real estate and mortgage professionals, will be available to educate members on market trends and the homebuying process.

“We believe this partnership offers something truly special for City & County Credit Union members,” said Ashley Rabemahefa, Residential Marketing Specialist and Realtor at Servion Realty. “By combining the strengths of both the credit union and our real estate teams, we can make homeownership a reality for more people and provide a level of service that exceeds expectations.”
